Progressive Dinner

The 2009 holiday progressive dinner on December 12 was a bona fide hit, with 25 of our Highlighters participating.

Eugene and Sandra Nickell kicked things off by graciously hosting the appetizer course at their home in Smyrna. We then traveled to the small fellowship hall for the main course, where we discovered our hosts Thomas & Lynda Phipps had gone all-out to decorate the area, complete with holiday music playing for us to enjoy.

The group then wound our way to the Blackman home of Mike and Sherri Brown, where we stowed our “dirty Santa” gifts under their tree and enjoyed coffee, sweet treats and lots of laughs as presents were ruthlessly stolen (all in good fun, of course!) If you missed the dinner, you missed a lot of fun - we hope you'll make plans to attend our next event! More photos will soon be available on the Highlighters page of the Highland Heights website.

(A special thanks to Joshua Pappas for acting as impromptu photographer and snapping photos for us to enjoy!)

You'll see if your kids love you enough to “friend” you. If they do, just don't write gushy stuff all over their wall. It's so not cool!)*

What's next for the Highlighters?

We need updated info from everyone so please fill out a form (attached to your email and print copies are available on the info desk.) 2010 events are in the planning stages. If you have any ideas for a fellowship, service or outreach activity, please include it on your information sheet or email Lori & Don ASAP.

You've got mail! Check the email address this was sent to and let Lori or Don know if you'd prefer receiving the newsletter at a different address; reply to lcw1976@bellsouth.net

Highlighters in our prayers...

Wally & Cynthia Carnes - their granddaughter continues to have serious medical problems with her foot.

Juandell Groce is recovering from foot surgery.

Sandra Luther - scheduled to have her jaw wired; still having tests run to determine if/when gallbladder surgery is needed.

Jerry & Christy McClenney - Christy's mom has lymphoma and has begun chemo.

Jim & Sheryl Jackson - Sheryl's sister had a double mastectomy late last year.

Dennis & Regina Tibbs - we're happy to spot Desiree attending services; sadly, they have a close family friend suffering from cancer.

Mark & Sue Ellmore - Katie was married to Brooks Parker earlier this month; Sue's nephew Peter Crosier is battling serious illness.

Don & Lori Winningham - Don and Lori are now proud grandparents! Lori's mom is recovering from a staph infection after she broke her arm late last year.

Nathan Tedder was deployed last year. Let's keep Nathan & Whitney and the Tedder family in our prayers while he's away. Email: nathan.tedder@auab.afcent.af.mil
