Welcome to the new 2HYM newsletter!

New year, new resolutions. One resolution is to keep our 2HYM members and parents better informed of all the awesome things we're doing and planning. The goal is to publish a 4-page newsletter every other month, so look for the next issue at the March 7 parent meeting, then new issues in May, July, Sep. and Nov.

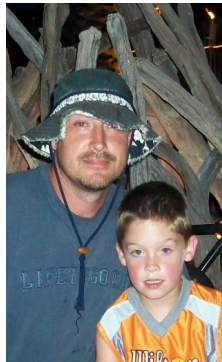

Tell us what you think! Be sure to let us know any suggestions for improvement, or if you'd like to volunteer to help write or edit.

Meet the middle school deacon: Jeff Carden

Jeff and his wife Amanda have been at HH for over 20 years. (Or put another way—longer than any 2HYM member has been alive.) Jeff is the COO (look it up) for RadSource and Amanda teaches at Ezell-Harding. They have 3 children: Rachel is 19, Becca is 17 and Jonathan is almost 13. Jeff says he remembers many of the 2HYM members from Bible Hour, which he's been doing 15+ years now. He's also involved with Ezell's theater department, so he should be ready to deal with any youth group drama that comes along. Plus, he says it's way more fun to hang out with the 2HYM crowd than the old guys any day.

Meet the high school deacon: Chas Keel

Chas and his wife Crystal placed membership at Highland in September 2008. They have 2 children: Casey is 8 and Cavin is 6. Chas works for the Town of Smyrna in the gas department (no lame jokes—he's heard them all.) Chas says he enjoys seeing the respect and obedience our youth show toward old people, like Chas... (hey, he said it himself.)

2HERS spreading warmth and good cheer

The high school girls in 2HYM are meeting monthly at Matt and Alison Wilber's home for a new ministry dubbed 2HERS, which stands for Ever Reliable Servants. In January, the young women made snuggie-style fleece blankets for shut-ins; February 5th is a sleepover at Alison's and blanket delivery on the 6th. March will be a cute, clever craft to help Missions with Mommy.
