

Highland Heights Highlighters

Fall 2009

Where did summer go?

Summer was really short and sweet! Many of the Highlighters were busy organizing our first-ever school supply giveaway. In case you missed it, we collected supplies for 150 Rutherford county school students entering Kindergarten through 5th grade. On Saturday, August 1 many families visited Highland and all the supplies were handed out in under an hour - wow!

In conjunction with the school supply drive, we also helped gather baskets full of classroom supplies for 9 schoolteachers who are members of Highland Heights. The baskets were presented to the teachers at an ice cream social on August 2.

Welcome home, Arthur!

We honored a special guest at the August ice cream social: Arthur Quick is back from his year-long tour of duty overseas. We rejoice with Janice and his family - we're glad you're home, Arthur!!!!

The Highlighters Got Black and Blue!!

On September 12, several Highlighters enjoyed a pre-game tailgate party at Don and Lori Winningham's home before cheering the MTSU Blue Raiders to a victory over Memphis in a "blackout" game. If you missed the fun and festivities, check out the pictures on the Highlighters' page of our website here.

Progressive Dinner?

There's never a dull moment around here! It's been a couple years since we've had a moveable feast, and the holiday season is a great time to have a fun evening of food and fellowship.

The first step is to choose the date: let Lori know by October 11 if you'd prefer December 5th or 12th. Also, please indicate if you'd be willing to open your home for the salad, main dish, or dessert course, then stay tuned for details!

You've got mail! (we hope!) Check your inbox for a copy of this newsletter. If you didn't get one, let Don & Lori know, or email them at lcw1976@bellsouth.net to be added to the list.

Ready to serve?

The food pantry has an ongoing need for several key items. There are about 80 of us “Highlighters.” Between now and Oct. 31, let’s each donate the items in this list below to help them build up a good reserve of these much-needed items:

- ✓ 1 pkg. diapers or can of powdered infant formula
- ✓ 1 can chili or beef stew
- ✓ 1 box of cake or brownie mix

To end 2009 on a high note, we’d like to identify a service project for the Highlighters to undertake. If you have an idea to suggest, please let Don or Lori Winningham know ASAP.

In our prayers now...

Debbie Stafford - knee surgery on 9/17

Don & Lori Winningham - Lori’s mom has continuing health problems.

Nathan Tedder was deployed earlier this year. Let’s keep Nathan & Whitney and the Tedder family in our prayers while he’s away. His email address is nathan.tedder@auab.afcent.af.mil

“Back in OUR day...”

“The Flintstones” was the first all-animated show on primetime TV, airing on Friday nights starting in September 1960. (You know you’re going to hum the “Flintstones, meet the Flintstones...” theme song all day!)

Whoa, horsie! Ford introduced the Mustang in 1964, followed by the Bronco in 1965 and the Pinto in 1970. How many of us drove at least one of these models?

Remember earth shoes? These “negative heel” shoes were introduced in 1970, but by 1977, the manufacturer was bankrupt.

Sing out! In 1966 Dr. Aaron Wesley Dicus penned Our God, He is Alive - an enduring response to the “God is dead” theory that was making inroads into pop culture and media at the time.
